

Paper presented by Mr. Baijnath Paswan (Young Professional, Jeevika) at Tata-Cornell Agriculture and Nutrition Initiative (TCi) , Cornell University, Ithaca, New York

Mr. Baijnath Paswan, a Young Professional of Bihar Rural Livelihoods Promotion Society, Jeevika. He has been selected as Young Indian Scholar supported by Tata-Cornell Agriculture and Nutrition Initiative (TCi) to present paper on “Women Institutions Catalyst for ‘Agri-Nutrition & Health’ Movement” in Bihar. The Tata-Cornell Agriculture and Nutrition Initiative (TCi) is a long-term research initiative based at Cornell University, focused on solving problems of poverty, malnutrition and rural development in India.

Baijnath worked in Banmankhi block of Purnea district for 2 years and is currently working on theme Health and Nutrition. He piloted Fortified food production unit project in Gaya and Khagaria. The objective of this project is to provide fortified food to pregnant and lactating women of rural poor households. He was instrumental in a tripartite MoU between Nidan, Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) and BRLPS (JEEVIKA).

For more details visit link: <http://tatacornell.tumblr.com/post/130878627674/young-indian-scholars-supported-by-tci-at-gfs>